

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle!

Clumsy Mr Whoops has been juggling with this week's dis- prefix words and he's got in a real juggling muddle! Could you help him to unjumble each word using the clues to help?

To have a negative opinion about something.  _____	To stop doing something or making something.  _____	To refuse or reject something.  _____	To find something or someone.  _____
To change the colour of something.  _____	To not be truthful.  _____	To doubt something is true.  _____	To go against the rules.  _____

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr Whoops muddled up? Use each of them in separate sentences that contain a subordinate clause.

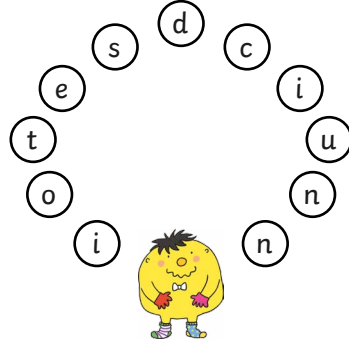

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle Answers

To have a negative opinion about something.

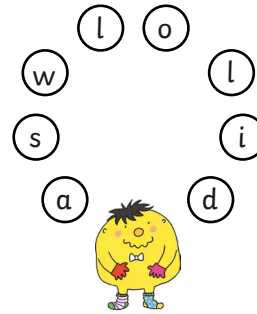

disapprove

To stop doing something or making something.

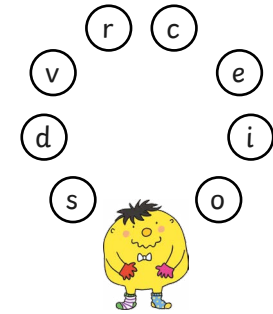

discontinue

To refuse or reject something.

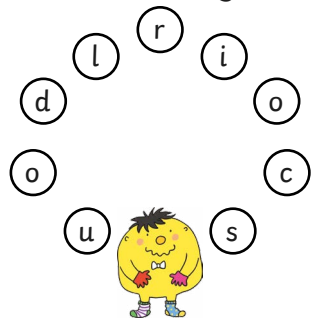

disallow

To find something or someone.

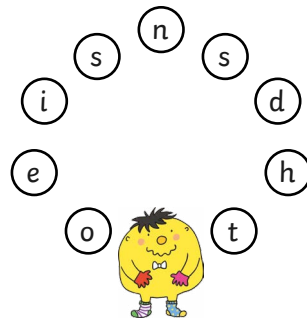

discover

To change the colour of something.

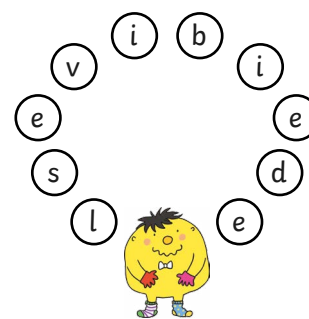

discolour

To not be truthful.

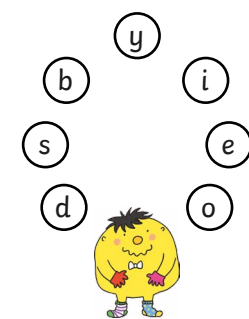

dishonest

To doubt something is true.

disbelieve

To go against the rules.

disobey

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr Whoops muddled up? Use each of them in separate sentences that contain a subordinate clause.

Accept TWO subordinate clause sentences that contain 'dislike' and 'disappear', e.g. Georgia had an even stronger dislike of sprouts after being made to eat her Christmas dinner. AND The magician performed a stunning trick with a rabbit before making himself disappear.