

There is a tree in my living room. It is decorated with lights and tinsel. There are presents underneath the tree and there is a star on top of the tree.

What time of year could it be?

A van is driving past my house. It is playing a tune. When the van stops, lots of children run outside with money.

What might they be buying?

Mum saw our cat climbing onto the kitchen table. The next time she looked, there was a broken vase on the kitchen floor.

What might have happened?

Josh stomped loudly up the stairs. He slammed his bedroom door and let out a loud noise. His face was bright red and his hands were tightly curled up.

How might Josh be feeling?

Before I go outside, I need to put on my coat, get an umbrella and wear my wellington boots.

Why might that be?

I went on a trip on Saturday. I took my bucket, spade and my swimming costume.

Where did I go?
